

DAVID M. DELVECCHIO BIOGRAPHY

David M. DelVecchio and his family reside in the City of Lambertville. He is the father of two boys and the husband to Karen Kominsky, a veteran Democratic strategist who served as Deputy Chief of Staff to Gov. James E. McGreevey.

Mr. DelVecchio is in the beginning of his seventh term as Mayor of the City of Lambertville. His accomplishments are many and include the implementation of preservation of the historical integrity of buildings in the central business district, development of an innovative traffic calming plan, revitalization of abandoned factories for new businesses and the creation of a redevelopment area in the City of Lambertville. DelVecchio was named Mayor of the Year by DARE New Jersey in recognition of Lambertville's anti-drug education efforts. He recently served as President of the New Jersey League of Municipalities and 2nd Vice President of the New Jersey Conference of Mayors.

David serves the community in several ways through his membership on Planning Board, the Hunterdon County Democratic Committee, and serves as Chairman of the Delaware River Canal Commission.

He is the Director of Business Development for Jingoli and Sons, Inc. David previously served in state government as a Senior Executive for Economic Development and as Director of Intergovernmental Relations and is a graduate of Rutgers University.