by friends and family to celebrate this; a battle hard won and hard fought. But, because of the pandemic, you have been stripped of that joy. We have been working diligently together on a transition. Councilwoman Lambert has agreed to be the liaison with Parks and Recreation and to talk to community members who feels unheard. Councilman Stegman is working with the chamber and on the County grant for zoning efforts. We have major policy initiatives for this year, and she said she is grateful that you have stepped up to do this for Lambertville. We will all work together to get this done. This is a wonderful opportunity for when we disagree that we can model for our community how to disagree respectfully. Thank you for all of the work you did to help to make this year a success.

OATH OF OFFICE

Philip J. Faherty administered the following Oaths:

Benedetta Lambert, Councilwoman to a three-year term expiring 12/31/2023, with her husband Russell looking on while her son, Russell Jr. held the Bible.

Steven Stegman, Councilman to a three-year term expiring 12/31/2023.

MOTION CARRIED.

OATH OF OFFICE – COUNCIL PRESIDENT

Mayor Fahl administered the Oath of Office to the Council President.

COMMENTARY

Mayor Fahl informed the members of the public that the State of the City is scheduled for January 14 and will outline policy initiatives and plans for 2021. She commented that the City is lucky to have Julia Taylor as a Social servant, and to serve as Council President, and as a member of council. She is tough cookie and has pushed me to be a better mayor. She was appointed under previously administration and fit seamlessly into the team. Her thoughtfulness and engagement even when our work was hard and there is no one better at the helm.

Council President Taylor thanked everyone for their support. She said this is a big job, but we all have big jobs right now. She appreciates the work of her colleagues. She complimented outgoing Council members Madeline Urbish and Beth Asaro and she said she deeply appreciates all that they offered to our community; and similarly, Councilwoman Lambert and Councilman Stegman. She looks forward to learning from and with them and said she is available to help. Council President Taylor informed the members of the public that in November of 2020, she served for two years on the Governing Body; but it has been since 2008 that she served the community on the Environmental Commission. Ms. Taylor informed the community that she has dedicated her entire life to service, and to have the opportunity is an honor. She looks forward to hearing and learning from all the perspectives in our community. 2020 saw us more divided than ever in a way that distressed her, but it doesn't make her want to stop serving. She is working towards a shared understanding to get to a goal we can agree on. Her professional experience is in professional organization and she will use that in her day-to-day work of city and think about working through virtual environment, use of technology that is available, evaluate, change communication policies to be effective advocates for their position. We need to evaluate and change how we do some of the things; make sure it is clear to everyone that it is getting done. The staff is working hard, and she appreciates all that they do every day, and it doesn't get communicated. It is important that everyone feels seen and heard as we face the challenges in our community and around us. We need to focus on affordable housing and also trying to fix the potholes. The Mayor and I don't always agree; however, we have found a way to do it respectfully and in a way that moves us forward and to get things done.

APPOINTMENTS TO BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Mayor Fahl announced a change in one of the appointments for Planning Board. The Class II appointment for is a spot for a city official. Lt. Brown is already such a valuable member of the Planning Board and he is often consulted on traffic circulation and parking issues. The Governing Body has received several emails through the last several days from the public asking for more diversity of thought. We worked with the City Attorney and with Council President Taylor, the Chair - Paul Kuhl on a resolution to fill the position with perhaps a member of the Lambertville Municipal Utilities Authority (LMUA). We are working with Tom Horn, the Executive Director to find right person to fit that role to contemplate capacity issues at the LMUA which is an important part of the process. Mayor Fahl informed the members of the public that Lt. Brown and the City's police department is a model for community policing. Members of the Governing Body agreed with the Mayor's statement regarding the City's police department as a role for community policing.

COUNCIL COMMENTS

Councilwoman Lambert addressed the Governing Body and members of the Public: I am honored to be chosen by the people of Lambertville to represent you on City Council. Thank you to everyone and know that I am deeply committed to serving our community, listening to every concern, and acting in concert with the community to build the Lambertville we want to see.

We have just concluded 2020, perhaps the most challenging year any of us has ever experienced. 2020 presented our community, and each of us, with obstacles unlike any other year in recent memory. We have been challenged on all fronts -our physical and mental health, our economic and financial security, our societal and personal relationships. We are stronger from it all, but also need to remain vigilant and work together to address COVID and how we recover as a community.

As we move into 2021 and the continuation of this pandemic, I hope to provide a government that serves the needs of our community and does not add to our burdens. I will work to find ways to move into the future without sacrificing the heart of Lambertville. Lambertville is, and always has been, a place of caring neighbors who always come together toward a common good. I will commit to representing you as we address the future. If you have concerns, I am here to talk and listen. I may not always have the answers, but I guarantee that I will strive to hear you and look for opportunities to collaborate in order to retain the character and integrity of the Lambertville we all love.

Thank you for the privilege of serving you and all good wishes for a Healthy and Happy New Year!

Councilman Stegman addressed the Governing Body and members of the public: I would like to take this opportunity to thank those who worked hard for us; and the support of the residents of the City of Lambertville in the primary and general election that made this day possible.

AGENDA

Today marks the celebration of the peaceful transfer of power dating back to the elections of 1800 that were held during the first party system election in our country.

To that, I would like to thank former council members Bath Asaro & Maddy Urbish for their dedication to the City and to their families for allowing them to share their precious time here on the council.

I know firsthand, what that means, and I acknowledge that commitment as well by our currently serving elected officials and their families.

The challenges before us as a city are important, as are the decisions that need to be made on spending, over-development, protecting our environment and preserving the historic buildings we own and their continued use to name but a few. While concurrently, we undertake the largest project in recent city history, the purchase and future uses of the Clossen property.

However, more importantly, are the actions the governing body has taken and will take to protect our residents and business community as we move through a COVID-19 world to a post COVID-19 reality. Those actions will hold us all accountable.

I look forward to working with the Mayor, Council and our city professionals to embrace Lambertville's past as we craft our City's future.

Councilman Sanders addressed the Governing Body and the members of the public: I wish everyone a Happy New Year and may 2021 be a better year and may we be able to recognize days of week and not think of every day as blursday. He extended a thank you and congratulated the new council members. He commented that he has known them both for long time, and their interest in public service will serve them well as they serve the city. Councilman Sanders also congratulated Julia Taylor as the new Council President. He said she has proven to be a valuable asset to the city. Her expertise has been important in steering us and as council president you will have many opportunities. Thanks to outgoing council for your service. He thanked staff, professionals, and members of public. Due to COVID, the interesting impact on workings of government and constituents is that we don't get to meet in public and feel your energy that forced social distance has taken that away. Electronic meetings has increased public participation so whether in person or electronically, engaged citizens has helped me in our decision making. Looking to 2021, he is hoping we can accomplish a balanced budget, improvement in trash removal, and road repairs, these are things we can and should do better. Improving public trust, healthy and less heated dialogue, and a pay to play ordinance, I think we need to focus on efficiencies as we learn to do more with less.

Mayor Fahl read the announcements into the record by title.

PUBLIC COMMENT.

Mayor Fahl asked for public comments.

Shaun Ellis: commend the Mayor for doing the right thing on the appointment regarding the planning board. I don't think that if we are encouraging public comment, I don't think its right to present dissenting opinion to a police officer in the community. I have nothing against Robert Brown, he is respectable, just about power dynamic.

Lilly Chen, I want to ditto what Shaun just said, appreciate you Mayor on changing your status on the appointment of Lt. Brown.

Evan Lide: I also wanted to thank Mayor and Council for listening to concerns the public had about this appointment; appreciate you listening to everyone and glad we are able to get to a better position. He said he thinks the world of Lt. Brown, he an advocate for Lambertville and has been fantastic.

Judy Gleason: I wasn't going to say anything, I appreciate that you took into consideration because I sent an email as well.

Benjamin West: I think this is a great decision. I want to connect this issue to the upcoming budget planning, a lot of us, since the murder of George Floyd have been engaging in anti-racist movement, many joined tens of millions who marched under the Black Lives Matter flags, stood our ground to people flying thin blue lines, it is important when we turn to budgeting in 2021 to consider what the demands, huge amount spent on police. He asked that the City move money away from the police budget, and added the City is spending millions for a brand-new police station. Over time this money adds up and we should think about what we could be doing with it. We could think about starting to pay our fair share to repay some of the harm we cause. We believe in science of climate change, systemic racism, we believe in those things, but will we act for justice.

Mayor Fahl responded that the City's budget is 6.2 Million, salary & wages do not equal half of our municipal budget. Police department didn't ask for a new police station, it was driven by the need for affordable housing. The City identified a site to provide affordable housing, housing densification creates systemic and racial and socio-economic issues. She said she appreciated his calm and reasoned outreach to us, and your participation in the Human Rights meeting. I want to state here because our police officers are on the line, I disagree strongly with you to defund the police, a gallop poll that came out cited 80% of black would like to see the same or more policing. Lt. Brown serving on the Planning Board was to integrate into our community how things are shaped. I will continue to be supportive of our police department who has done a lot in our community to work with us as we try to address systemic social racism, and problematic zoning. Mr. West commented that half of the municipal spending, the services comes to half of the city spending on service.

Councilman Stegman thanked the Mayor and said from her first phone call to meet, such a warm and welcoming thing for the Mayor to do, so thank you. And also, in the past week, Councilwoman Lambert and I both received the emails that most of the other council received, and during that time, Councilman Sanders and Council President Taylor reached out to get input on how we felt about the appointments, so I thank you both for including us in the conversation. He is looking forward to working together to address concerns and challenges. Mayor Fahl responded that she hopes both you and Councilwoman Lambert will avail yourselves to call me directly if you have any concerns.

ADJOURNMENT.

The meeting adjourned at 7:06 p.m. with a motion made by Councilman Sanders and seconded by Councilman Stegman. An affirmative voice vote was taken in favor of the motion by all members present. MOTION CARRIED.
